Financial Assistance provided to needy students by, Mr. Rutav Mehta, Emcure Pharmaceuticals, Pune.

Financial Assistance activity by Emcure Pharmaceuticals

A large number of students from villages & suburban part of the Pune city prefer our college for their education. Many of them are the 1st generation graduates & some are even the 1st generation learners particularly from socio-economically weaker section. Such students request for payment of fees in installments & some of them apply for educational loans. The 22 students who were shortlisted were likely to be deprived of education due to financial constrains. These students approached our Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) committee for the financial help. Their applications, after conducting interviews were forwarded to Emcure Pharmaceuticals Ltd. The authorities of Emcure Pharmaceuticals Ltd. considered our applications for the financial help & provided Rs.3,05,000/- (Rs.Three Lac Five Thousand) for the needy students. Collection Of Old Clothes. "OLD CLOTH DRIVE"

The collected clothes were donated to an NGO with a noble aim of fulfilling the basic requirement of clothing of needy people. Every day we kept cloth baskets in the Porch (Main entrance) of the college and got those buckets filled of clothes at the end of the day. We genuinely salute the spirit of donation shown by the students, teaching & non teaching staff. The clothes were collected from people like us and those collections were processed with necessary value addition and were given to the poor and needy people. We ensured the dignity by providing them respect & human touch, through empathetically approach. In this drive, we provided clothes, stationary items, toys, story books, etc to the underprivileged people living in open on the streets and in slum areas in Pune. In addition to said items, e-waste was also collected for systematic recycling.

Objectives:

The objective of cloth collection drive, is to promote recycling and reuse of clothes.
